About the Session:

The Nonviolent Crisis Intervention® training program is a safe, nonharmful behavior management system designed to help educators provide the best Care, Welfare, Safety, and Security of confrontational, disruptive, or potentially out-of-control students, even during their most violent moments.

This course consists of TWO components; an ONLINE and a CLASSROOM component.

Online course instruction can typically be completed in 2-3 hours, and must be done in advance of the classroom portion.

The one-day classroom portion will follow successful completion of the online component.

Once registered for the NVCI FLEX training, you will receive an automated email containing a link that will allow you to access the online portion to be completed prior to the classroom portion.

The following aspects will be covered:

- The stages of escalation and the de-escalation techniques to use during each stage.
- Nonverbal and verbal intervention strategies for managing disruptive behavior.
- CPI's Personal Safety Techniques to maximize student and staff safety if the aggressive behavior becomes physical.
- Understanding and development of team intervention strategies and techniques.
- Demonstration and practice of safe physical control techniques to be used as a last resort if the out-of-control student becomes violent and a danger to self or others.

Instruction is provided in the debriefing and documentation that should take place after a crisis.
