Session Location:

Stonebridge Hotel
12102-100 Street, Grande Prairie, AB

About the Session:

Cette courte formation de renouvellement vise à renforcer les connaissances des stagiaires sur les niveaux du Cadre européen commun de référence pour les langues et à harmoniser les pratiques évaluatives (en production écrite et en production orale) en fonction des critères d'évaluation des épreuves DELF : niveaux A1, A2, B1 et B2. Ce module de 7 heures, dispensé un jour, permet aux stagiaires de renouveler leur habilitation officiellement comme correcteurs et examinateurs DELF et de se mettre à jour des nouveautés du CECR et de l'examen.

La formation est conçue selon une approche participative et interactive alternant les séances de réflexion théorique et les ateliers pratiques. À l'issue de la formation, une attestation d'habilitation de correcteur-examineur valable pour CINQ ans sera distribuée par FEI. La délivrance de cette attestation est soumise à la participation à l'ensemble de la formation et aux résultats obtenus lors des études de cas et de l'évaluation individuelle finale.

How does the session relate to T.Q.S (Teacher Quality Standards)

2. A teacher engages in career-long professional learning and ongoing critical reflection to improve teaching and learning.

Achievement of this competency is demonstrated by indicators such as:

- (a) collaborating with other teachers to build personal and collective professional capacities and expertise;
- (d) seeking, critically reviewing and applying educational research to improve practice;

About the Presenter(s):Diana Boisvert

Diana Boisvert is the French Language Resource Centre Director and the Vice-President of SLIC (Second Languages and Intercultural Council). Within her role, she also directs the Grande Prairie DELF-DALF Exam Centre. Diana has been heavily involved in a partnership with France and was among the first to participate in a job-shadowing experience in Nancy, France. In addition, she was one of the first FSL (Core French) teachers to pilot the DELF PRIM exams in all of Canada. Noted for her initiatives, she has presented at several local, provincial and national conferences. Diana has a significant background in French as a Second Language (Core French) classroom, as well as experience in the French Immersion classroom. With hands-on experience in successfully applying best practices in second language teaching and learning to her own students, through the use of current resources, Diana is the 'go-to' specialist for all things FSL (Core French).

Catering is not prepared in a nut/gluten-free environment.
