Learning Opportunity

Are you new to teaching Grade 9 Religion, or would you like another look at the program? Please join Susanna Kaup, Secondary Religious Education Consultant for Edmonton Catholic Schools, to engage in an overview of this curriculum. Together we will explore the teacher guide and student book, essential understandings, year plans, and possible project-based learning activities you can engage in with your class.

Presenters

Susanna Kaup

Susanna is currently working with Edmonton Catholic Schools as the Secondary Religious Education Curriculum Consultant. Throughout her 25-year career as an educator, Susanna has remained passionate about publicly-funded Catholic education, and the need for permeation at all levels in all subject areas. Susanna has spent much of her career working in inner city schools and creating rich and meaningful resources to meet many learning styles. With a strong belief in life-long learning, Susanna went back to school at the age of 40 to earn her Master's Degree in Religious Education, proving that it's never too late to pursue your dreams! As a teacher, wife, and mother to four children, Susanna is committed to being an advocate for engaging teenagers and young adults in Catholic Education.

Registration Notes

Participants will be required to bring to the session Digital or Paper copy of the grade level Religious Studies Curriculum/Program of Studies Document(s) and a copy of the grade level student textbook(s) and teacher resources.
