Program

Are you new to teaching Religion 25, or would you like another look at this content rich program? Please join Susanna Kaup, Secondary Religious Education Consultant for Edmonton Catholic Schools, for an overview of the 'Go and Make Disciples' program of studies, exploration of the student text and teacher guide - Jesus of History, Christ of Faith, creating year plans, considerations of English Language Learners and students with special requirements, authentic formative and summative assessment as it pertains to Religious Education, and more.

Presenters

Susanna Kaup

Susanna is currently working with Edmonton Catholic Schools as the Secondary Religious Education Curriculum Consultant. Throughout her 25-year career as an educator, Susanna has remained passionate about publicly-funded Catholic education, and the need for permeation at all levels in all subject areas. Susanna has spent much of her career working in inner city schools and creating rich and meaningful resources to meet many learning styles. With a strong belief in life-long learning, Susanna went back to school at the age of 40 to earn her Master's Degree in Religious Education, proving that it's never too late to pursue your dreams! As a teacher, wife, and mother to four children, Susanna is committed to being an advocate for engaging teenagers and young adults in Catholic Education.

Registration Notes

Participants will be required to bring to the session Digital or Paper copy of the grade level Religious Studies Curriculum/Program of Studies Document(s) and a copy of the grade level student textbook(s) and teacher resources.
