About the Session:

New Blood is an interdisciplinary dance piece that explores the idea of reconciliation. Inspired by childhood experiences in residential schools reflected in the poems of Chief Dan George, called Grandchild , and The Indian and the Child , from Siksika chief , Vincent Yellow Old Woman, Strathmore High School choreographer/teacher Deanne Bertsch, incorporated poetry, music and dance into a dramatic and moving student performance.

This live stream showing of the English Language, with subtitles in French, pre-recorded performance will be followed by an opportunity for students to ask questions to a panel of Elders and Knowledge Keepers.
